43 years! When the doors of Miss Shelly's School of Dance opened 43 years ago, it was, and still is, my mission to instill and inspire the love and passion of dance into the hearts of dancers of all ages. After reading the "Star Polisher", I am reminded that we share much more than dance, more than triple turns and switch leaps. We share the open arms, warm hugs, and smiles that will be remembered long after the recital dance has been forgotten. We share the triumphs of making it though a pandemic, continuing to dance in the rain and look for the rainbow, and encourage each person we encounter to become the strong and courageous versions of themselves. We share celebrations of a picture colored by a baby ballerina, a lost tooth, a role in a school play, a new driver. It is these moments we share and celebrate, moments that we took the time, that make us the "star polisher".

Just remember, you are the only person alive who has the sole custody of your life. Not just the life at school or dance studio or home. Not only the life of your mind, but also the life of your heart and, more importantly, your soul! I am looking forward to this 43rd year of "polishing."

Love always, Miss Shelly

Star Polisher...I have a great job in the universe of occupations. What do I do? I'm a "star polisher." It's a very important job. If you want to know how important, just go out at night a look at the stars twinkling and sparkling.

You see, I'm a dance teacher. The stars are the children in my class. My job is to take them in – in whatever shape they come – and shine and buff them and then send them out to take their places as bright little twinkling beacons in the sky.

They come into my room in all shapes and sizes. Sometimes they're bent, tarnished, dirty, crinkly and broken. Some stars are cuddly, soft and sweet. Some stars are prickly and thorny.

As I buff, polish, train and teach my little stars, I tell them that the world cannot do without them. I tell them they can do anything they set their minds to do. I tell them they can be the brightest, shiniest stars in the sky and the world will be a better place because of them.

Each night as I look at the sky, I'm reminded of my very important job and awesome responsibility. I go and get my soft buffing cloth and my bottle of polish in preparation for tomorrow and for my class of little stars. Leah Beck

Our observation windows will be opened from time to time, at the discretion of the instructor.

SPECIAL YEARLY EVENTS HELD AT MISS SHELLY'S

Father/Daughter Holiday Dance, Birthday Parties & Special Dance Camps. Information will be distributed to dancers in class.

RECITAL

Our Recital is scheduled at the end of the dance year in May. This is a beautiful event to showcase the dancers and all of the hard work they have accomplished in the year. We will host multiple recitals and those divided by age with details released in March. The Recital is optional, but we encourage all of our students to participate. A walk thru rehearsal is held on the same morning as the Recital.

COSTUME FEE

Recital costumes range in price from $65 to $120. Because costumes require up to 18 weeks for delivery, we ask that parents come to the studio in early January to measure their dancer, order and pay for costumes. We cannot, under any circumstances, make refunds for ordered costumes.

RECITAL FEE

A $75.00 per dancer recital fee is collected in March. Recital fee is used to help offset the expenses associated with the rental of a Recital space, union stagehands, technical crews, ushers, programs and scenery. If you volunteer to be a "stage mom," you pay only $50 for your student's recital fee. We need two stage moms per class to help with walk-thru rehearsal and recital. Recital Fee is used instead of selling tickets.

PHOTOGRAPHS

A photographer comes to the studio in late April/early May to take individual and group pictures. Purchase of the photographs is strictly optional, and payment is made directly to the photographer on the day of pictures.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

Celebrate at Miss Shelly's with a party full of dancing, dressing up, playing with friends and LOTS OF FUN! Choose from a number of different birthday party themes and options & let us make the day extra special! Brochures are located in the front lobby. MEET OUR STAFF...

MISS SHELLY

Shelly Ledbetter fell in love with dancing when she was 3 years old. Her ballet training eventually came under the watchful eyes of (late) Mosceleyne Larkin and the late Roman Jasinski. Her relationship with these masters led to an association with the Tulsa Civic Ballet (TCB), forerunner to the Tulsa Ballet Theatre. There, Miss Shelly performed as a member of the corps de ballet and as a soloist. She toured with TCB dancing classical works such as "Giselle," "Swan Lake," "Mozartine," "Stars and Stripes," "The Nutcracker Suite" and "Paquita." Miss Shelly also was a weekly performer in a program designed to introduce ballet to the Tulsa Public School System. Additionally, she danced in the Tulsa Opera performances including "Hansel and Gretel," and "Turandot."

To further her career, Miss Shelly took classes under Rosella Hightown, Marie Tallchief and Marjorie Tallchief – renowned Indian classical ballerinas; Robert Joffrey – master classes; Jerry Cochran Bywater – modern dance; Marguerite Reid – Dance Showcase founder and Kansas University Dance Department Head; and Yvonne Choteau and her husband who are co-heads of the University of Oklahoma Dance Department.

Miss Shelly is a member of Dance Masters of America, a select society of dance teachers. She has helped nationally ranked gymnasts with their floor routines, has assisted the Tulsa Skating Club in final phases of figure skaters' work and has worked with Theatre Tulsa. Miss Shelly has also choreographed dances for private benefits including the annual Tulsa Junior League/Saks Fifth Avenue Style Show, Opera Ball and Heart Ball. Readers Digest and Tulsa area publications have featured Miss Shelly and her continued work in teaching dance to special needs children. Miss Shelly is a member of Tulsa Ballet Theater Dance Teacher Association.
